HARD WORK FOR POSTOFFICE CLERKS.

TOLIDAY MAILS ARE HEAVY-IMMENSE MONEY ORDER BUSINESS.

Superintendent William Plimley, of the money rder division of the Postoffice, and his clerks have een extra rdinarily busy the last week. The second week before Christmas is the busiest one of the year, specially in foreign money-orders, and this eck last year was 59,275, and the value of the orders as $715,830 79. This year 70,695 money orders for 6871,204 08 were sent out in the week ending Friday The average value of the orders was $12 50 yearly 9,000 orders were received yesterday. The crease over the heaviest week of last year was 1,420 orders. Eighty-nine clerks were ast year, and ninety-three this year, so that a force creased only a little has handled a mail much arger than last year. The clerks worked under Mr. Plimley's supervision until nearly midnight on Friday. The registered letter mails have also been larger han ever before, 10,000 letters and packages having than ever before, 10,000 letters and packages asvine been received in a single day. The regular letter nears are also unusually large. Ten double trucks were needed to carry the outgoing mails to the steament adding on a single day last week. The local mails already begin to show the influence of the approach-
